Dear Mr. Feitl,

I write to you today in support of Omaha Children's Museum's nomination to receive the FY2023 National Medal for Museum Service.

They have been a community asset here in the Omaha area for almost half a century. Generations of children and their families have benefitted from the quality, fun, educational exhibits and programming that they have become known for – my own children included.

I believe Omaha Children's Museum is most deserving of this prestigious award, and that they will continue to provide the dedicated level of service to our region that their visitors have come to expect and appreciate.

Sincerely,

Kim Balkovec
